

Northeastern Pennsylvania Synod - Vision for Ministry

Current Synodical Priorities

Our vision of people rooted, connected, sent and transformed calls us to respond to the issues that confront us. In faithful response to God's action in our lives, we name these priorities in our life together:

- We will deepen our relationship with God
- We will renew our passion for sharing the good news
- We will strengthen the connections among people and communities
- We will develop leaders for a new church in a new world

Questions for your consideration -

1. From your perspective, what are the main issues facing our congregations?

2. a. What excites you about the church, ministry, and the synod?

2. b. What saddens you about the church, ministry, and the synod?

3. What are the three most important priorities for the synod over the next six years?

4. What three attributes are needed in our synod's next bishop?
