Workshops

Morning Workshops (list workshop # when registering)

- #MW 10 Strong and Gracious Presiding Strong presiding is the product of careful and thoughtful preparation. Gracious presiding is the product of developed awareness of your own person and the place in which you preside.
- #MW 20 Looking Outside the Box Contemporary/praise music in worship
- #MW 50 Learning to Serve/Serving to Learn Worship leadership for the younger members of the faith community.

Afternoon Workshops (list workshop # when registering)

- #AW 30 Sundays and Seasons All the things you wanted to know, but were afraid to ask about this treasure of online worship resources. Wireless internet connection available.
- #AW 40 The Environment/the Scene Extreme Makeover—Worship Room Edition!

The following workshop is planned as one unit with morning and afternoon sessions

(use #MAW 67 when registering)

- Morning Worship Variety and Planning Learn how to use a “pinch of this” and a “dash of that” to make the perfect mix. A worship service will be planned.
- Afternoon Choirs Revisited: Being Rebuilt for Liturgy Explore ways in which the choir can provide leadership to the worship planned during the morning session.
