- Coming home for Christmas was a jolt for Jean – almost as much as the jolt she had had when she left home to go to college in the fall.

Then her congregation invited her to a gathering with other college students during the Christmas break. Soon she was laughing and chatting with other students as they shared the trials and tribulations – and the joys – of college life.

Thanks to you and your gifts, Jean and other college students across the synod are able to gather with church friends for fellowship and conversation about life away from home.

Your gifts help support such gatherings through grants from the Campus Ministry Affinity Group. This group of leaders in campus ministry – both on campus and in congregations– reaches out to all who teach and learn, inviting them to experience the challenge of following Jesus.

Jean thanks you for your gifts, as do all those whose lives are brightened through your gifts to mission support.
